

Become a Next Level Leader: Mind Your Own Business Legacy

Equip your emerging leaders with the tools and insights to confidently lead at their “next level.” Tonya’s dynamic keynotes, informed by years of corporate and educational experience with global audiences, inspire action, ignite transformation, and drive clarity and purpose in leadership at every level.

“I accepted a Director of Accounting position for a sm-md size firm that deals with mostly hotels. You helped me realize that I have to ask for what I want and while it may not have happened at [large restaurant company name withheld], it did happen! Two levels above my old role is not too bad at all! Thanks so much for all you do. You never know how your message may influence someone.”

D.R., Women’s Leadership Summit Attendee, Ohio Society of CPA’s

FUN FACT! From our pre-survey findings, Strategic Thinking is the number one behavior the majority of participants list as “next level.”
